By deleting the following language in its entirety and by renumbering the remaining sections accordingly:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-4-2003, is amended by adding the following language as new subsections (d) and (e):

(d) An affiliated group subject to the tax levied by this part shall register with the department of revenue as an affiliated group, providing such information as is reasonably required by the department. The registration information form shall be filed with the department by August 31, 2002, or within fifteen (15) days after the date the affiliated group becomes subject to the tax, whichever date occurs last. An affiliated group shall be required to so register even though some or all of the corporations included in its filing group may have registered or filed an excise tax return under prior law. In the event that corporate members of an affiliated group cease to be a part of the filing group or in the event that new corporate members join the filing group, the affiliated group shall so advise the department of revenue within thirty (30) days of the event by filing an amended registration form providing such information as is reasonably required by the department.

(e) The commissioner shall assess a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100) for each failure to timely register in accordance with the provisions of this section.

In the case of persons or taxpayers required to file franchise and excise tax returns on a combined or consolidated basis, the combined or consolidated group shall be considered a single person or taxpayer;

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-4-2004, is amended by adding the following as a new subitem:

( ) "Affiliated group" means any group of corporations engaged in a unitary business that have elected to file a consolidated federal income tax return under the provisions of Section 1501 through 1505 of the Internal Revenue Code; provided, however, that, for purposes of Parts 20 and 21 of this chapter, neither a financial institution, a hospital or hospital company, nor an insurance company shall be considered an affiliated group or affiliated group member. For tax years ending on or after July 1, 2002, affiliated groups shall file consolidated franchise, excise tax returns to the extent of their United States operations. Such consolidated franchise, excise tax returns shall include all corporations that are filing on a consolidated basis for federal income tax purposes if one or more such corporations would be subject to Tennessee franchise, excise taxes if it were filing on a separate entity basis.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-4-2006(a), is amended by adding the following new subdivision (4) immediately after subdivision (3) and renumbering the remaining subdivisions accordingly:

(4) For an affiliated group of corporations, "net earnings" for Tennessee excise tax purposes is defined as the federal consolidated taxable income or loss purposes of this subitem, "subject to a tax based upon or measured by such member's or entity's net income" means that the related member or related entity recipient of the payment has included it in the computation of its net earnings subject to a state income tax. In the event that the related member or related entity apportions its net earnings subject to a state income tax, then the taxpayer may deduct only the portion of the intangible expense payment or interest expense payment upon which the recipient is subject to a state tax based on or measured by income. In such a case, the amount of intangible expense payment or interest expense payment deductible by the taxpayer for Tennessee excise tax purposes shall be determined by multiplying the expense payment by the recipient's apportionment ratio in the taxing state. The amount to be added back to federal taxable income in determining the taxpayer's excise tax base shall be the difference between the entire expense payment and the amount deductible by the taxpayer as an expense for Tennessee excise tax purposes.

SECTION 28. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 67-4-2006(b)(2), is amended by adding the following as a new subitem (M):

(M) Any item of income included in the computation of a taxpayer's taxable income for purposes of subsection (a) above, that, due to the provisions of Section 67-4-2006(b)(1)(K) or (L), has not been allowed as an expense deduction for purposes of the excise tax levied by this part.
